Mr. Winefordner: My, Susan drives like lightning doesn't she?

Mr. Derrickson: Yes, she's always striking things.

Mr. Marshall: Daniels, this is the fifth time this week that I have had to punish you. What have you to say for yourself?

R. Daniels: Sure glad it's Friday.

McNabb: Dean, have you ever been to the Zoo?

D. Biery: Nope

McNabb: Well, you ought to go sometime. You would get a big kick out of seeing the turtles zip past.

Teacher: Adeline, what are you going to do when you get as big as mother.

Little Adeline: Diet.

Mr. Marshall (showing the Industrial Arts class how to start an old car): As you can plainly see, this machine is being started by a crank.

Joe: Is your girl spoiled?

Moe: No, it's just the perfume she's wearing.

1st Cowboy: My name's Tex.

2nd Cowboy: You from Texas?

1st Cowboy: Nope, Louisiana, but who wants to be called Louise?

Winefordner: Whoever he is, there is a lowly sneak thief on this football squad. In the past month, I have missed two pair of athletic sox, my favorite overalls, and four Hotel Statler towels.

L. Otto: My father is an undertaker.

J. Warren: Oh, I understood that he was a doctor.

Lynn: No, I merely said that he followed the medical profession.

Jim N: How about having dinner with me?

Phyllis: I'd love it.

Jim: Okay, tell your mother I'll be over at six.

Kay to Mrs. Johnson: I don't want to threaten you but Dad said if I didn't get a better grade on your next test, someone would ge spanked.

CLASS HISTORY

One exciting day in September, the Mt. Cory and Rawson first grades were filled with the shining faces on new students. Forty-one of these have been twelve years together.

Between our fifth and sixth grades the two schools became a consolidated school district.

In 1952, looking forward to many happy days, we eagerly began our high school careers at our new, modern Cory-Rawson High School.

Under the leadership of our sponsors, Mr. Trostmillier and Mrs. Oswald, we chose for our Freshman officers: Tom Reiter, president; Roberta Hause, vice-president; and Elizabeth Creighton, secretary-treasurer. During that year, we lost Larry Rettig, Sally Hartman, Don Wonder, and Mary Lee Snyder.

We were guided through our Sophomore year by our sponsors, Mr. Knight and Mr. Fink. We chose as our officers: George Keller, president; Roberta Hause, vice-president; Rosemary Anderson, secretary; and Larry Bame, treasurer. The big event of that year was the choosing of our sparkling class rings. We welcomed to our class Larry Bame, James Nonnamaker, and Annetta Habeggar, but said good-bye to Joan Crawfis and Shelva Woodward.

With great anxiety, we began our Junior year under our competent sponsors, Mr. Knight and Mrs. Bruning. We selected as our officers: Larry Bame, president; Roberta Hause, vice-president; Edith Poe, secretary; and James Nonnamaker, treasurer. The three main events of the year were: running the concession stand at basketball games, entertaining the seniors at our banquet, "A Garden of Dreams," and presenting our first class play, "You Can't Kiss Caroline." We were joined by Maurice Linville, and lost Elvina Wilkins.

Under the excellent guidance of our teachers and parents, we reached our last year in high school. We organized our class with the following officers: Larry Bame, president; James Nonnamaker, vice-president; Roberta Hause, secretary; and Jerrilyn Falk, treasurer. Our next undertakings were to select our annual staff and have our pictures taken in Fostoria. Our class play, presented in November, was "We Shook the Family Tree." During our Senior year, we lost Maurice Linville and Sandra Spaeth, making a total of 57 graduates.

Our last and much looked forward to event was our class trip to Washington and New York. It was a great trip, very much enjoyed by everyone, including our class sponsors, Mr. Deeds and Mr. Clevidence.

On May 20, when our Commencement and Baccalaureate were held, our wonderful school days came to a close. Our school mates parted, each looking fondly back to the past and eagerly forward to the future and remembering our class motto, "Live to learn, and learn to live."

THE CLASS PROPHECY

1966 is here already, and the class of 1956 is having it's reunion at Salisbury's Restaurant. We were very much interested in what had happened to our classmates during the last ten years.

Marjorie Amstutz is living on a farm near Arlington. Rosemary Anderson has just been acclaimed the world's fastest shorthand writer. Bob Augsburg is an English Professor at Ohio State. In Hollywood, Larry Bame has just been awarded an "Oscar" for best actor of the year.

Beverly Battles is a successful Power's model in New York. Judy Baumgartner is women's physical Ed. instructor at Bowling Green State University. Lulabell Bracy and Bonnie Marquart are running a Ladies' Apparel Shoppe in Bluffton.

Nelda Clymer is living out West with her rancher husband on a 5,000 acre ranch. Liz Creighton, who is a famous dress designer, is still shopping around for another "Prince of Monaco." Sue Derickson is chief beautician at New York's Waldorf-Astoria. Kay Dever and Janet Inbody are happy farmers' wives.

Janet Edinger is the poetess laureate of America. Jerri Falk is the feminine Albert Einstein. Elaine Frech is one of the world's champion knitters. Rex Frech is posing on TV for hair tonic ads.

Martha Fritz made her debut on TV as a dramatic actress and became a star overnight. Annetta Habegger is a seamstress and she owns a dressmakers' shop in Lima. Tom Hartman has just arrived home from Iran where he was an engineer for a big oil company. At Cory-Rawson, Roberta Hause has just taken over Cleve's job as Commercial teacher.

Merriett Von Stein is a lieutenant in Chicago's Police Force. His wife, Dorine Bosse, is a leading social worker. Gian Welch is the new owner of the Millstream Speedway. James Zimmerman is following in his father's footsteps as a teacher at Ada.

Mary Heldman and Lois Ann Inbody have high positions at the Ohio Oil Co. with offices of their own. Lee Hemminger and Mill Moyer are Captains in the U.S. Army. Dale Howard got his wish, he is King of Jazz and he has his own jazz band.

Phyllis Inbody has taken over her mother-in-law's job at Robert Ede's Realty Company. Bob James and Kenny Zuercher are sports car designers for Ford Motor Company. Larry Karch has just returned from Alaska where he went to search for gold. George Keller is now Ohio State's head basketball coach.

At 27, Patsy Lehman is the World's new Woman's Water Skiing Champion. Raymond Marvin discovered oil in his back yard and he is now a millionaire. Marilyn Neff is New Orleans's leading socialite. Joan Niswander is married to a school teacher.

James Nonnamaker is Editor of the Republican Courier. Harold Weidman and his wife, Edith Poe, are the proud parents of quintuplets. They live on a farm near Bluffton. Lynn Otto has become a dentist and now he can make his own false teeth. Marlene Powell is now a famous star at the Metropolitan Opera House.

Sarah Raush is a women's hat designer. Carol Reiter and Evagene Rettig own a hotel, in Columbus. Out in Hollywood, Tom Reiter is Red Skelton's new writer.

Shirley Ruppright, Marilyn Smith, and Pat Smith are young married women. They have formed a Mothers of Twins Club. Bob Shafer is sports announcer for the Cleveland Indians. Carolyn Spaeth is secretary to the President of the First National Bank of Detroit.

In Bluffton, Betty Stewart is running a laundromat. After being an airline stewardess, Iva May Tripplehorn landed a millionaire husband.
